

What is the CASI ATV RiderCourse<sup>SM</sup>?

The CASI ATV RiderCourse<sup>SM</sup> is the most current, hands-on ATV safety program available in Canada. During the half-day session, students learn skills and understanding required for safe and responsible ATV operation.

What is CASI?

The Canadian AQCC Safety Institute (CASI) is a division of the All Terrain Quad Council of Canada (AQCC) created to implement the CASI ATV RiderCourse<sup>SM</sup>.

What is AQCC?

AQCC (All-Terrain Quad Council of Canada) is the national ATV federation comprised of provincial ATV rider federation members. The mandate of AQCC is to promote safe and responsible riding and to represent the riders who do so.

How did the CASI program get started?

ATV rider federations across Canada identified a need to update the ATV safety curriculum and standardize it nationally.

AQCC partnered with the Canadian Off-Highway Vehicle Distributors Council (COHV) and the ATV Safety Institute (ASI) to develop the most current, hands-on national ATV safety program available in Canada. The highly regarded ATV RiderCourse<sup>SM</sup> is the basis for numerous safety courses in Canada, the United States and in Europe.

Is the CASI ATV RiderCourse<sup>SM</sup> recognized?

The CASI ATV RiderCourse<sup>SM</sup> is supported and endorsed by the Canadian Off Highway Vehicle Distributors Council and through the Council - all major ATV manufacturers.

The program is also recognized by the National Off-Highway Vehicle Conservation Council which works with all stakeholders to further a positive future for responsible OHV recreation.

Where do I find out more about the CASI ATV RiderCourse<sup>SM</sup>?

The CASI ATV RiderCourse<sup>SM</sup> is offered through provincial ATV rider federations across the country. These rider federations promote safe and responsible riding; develop and protect riding opportunities; and encourage the sport of ATVing with family and friends.
